

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We used to get about 10 calls a day, and now we don't get any! Which is nice, since they usually called while we were eating.